

Summer Jobs for Kids

This infographic from our May 2019 SPIN News issue reminds parents that summertime offers opportunities for your child to learn lessons related to setting financial goals, earning, budgeting and saving. Below are some simple job ideas for summer jobs that may appeal to you and your keiki:

INFORMAL JOBS

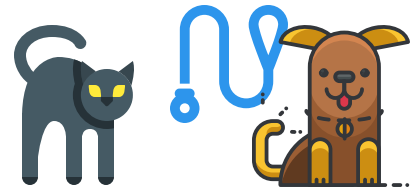

Bake Sales

Cookie, cake and cupcake sales and/or preparing desserts for special occasions (.).

Recycling

Offer to pick up cans, bottles and scrap metal from neighbors and friends.

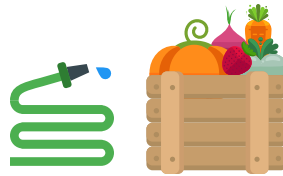

Pet Services

Pet walking, pet-sitting, and pet grooming are all sought after services for pampered pets

Yard Care

Raking, mowing the grass, and doing other light yard work is a healthy activity that grows repeat customers

Gardening

Bounty from the garden-- fruits, vegetables, spices, flowers, and house plants--can be sold to neighbors & friends

Yard Sales or Swap Meet

Selling items that your child no longer uses--like books and toys--can earn some extra $$

FORMAL JOBS

Food Services

25% of young people work as a host, cashier or server in a restaurant

Retailing

17% of young people work in retail jobs as sales clerks, stockers and cashiers

Childcare

11% of young people hold jobs as a babysitter, nanny or tutor.

* Financial Literacy involves teaching our children how money is made, spent and saved, and how to make good money decisions that lead to their financial stability and security as adults.